Description

Spectacular Napoleon III photo album in multicolored mother-of-pearl with deep violet and mauve reflections, decorated with lozenges. The front cover features a generous domed cartouche adorned with tiny violet cabochons within a silvered mother-of-pearl frame (not engraved with ownership, which is a plus). Both covers are fully and precisely inlaid. The back cover is fitted with four silvered mother-of-pearl cabochons to stabilize the slightly curved binding. The clasps are bronze, the spine is lined with violet velvet, the thick edge is gilt, and the interior has elegantly arranged photo frames of varying sizes. A truly extraordinary curiosity, the precious and shimmering binding, with its beautiful covers inlaid with precision on zinc sheet for added durability, is a preserved decorative element of
