Description

Buffet a doucine / Restoration period walnut chest of drawers - 19th century Elegant low buffet or chest of drawers from the Restoration period (circa 1820-1840), crafted in fine quality flamed walnut. The piece features a sober and refined front, characteristic of this period, with a highlighting of the spectacular walnut veining, forming beautiful symmetrical butterfly-wing motifs. It opens in front with a drawer in the waist surmounting two doors, revealing an interior with shelf. The rounded uprights and unobtrusive base reinforce the elegant, understated look. The locks are present, and the structure is sound. The top also features attractive, understated geometric decoration. Dimensions: Height 89 cm Width 93 cm Depth 57 cm Era: Restoration, first half 19th century Species: walnut Condition: good overall
