Description

Marcel DEBUT (1865 - 1933), French sculptor, for "Porteur d'eau tunisien." Circa 1900. Sublime orientalist bronze. Lots of charm for this slender, athletic porter who, in action, truly seems to come to life. Realistic yet poetic, he instantly transports us with him... what exoticism, what delight! Fine, precise chiseling; beautiful, rich colors for this work with brown, red, green and gold patinas. On the plinth, artist's signature and embedded stamp: stamp "Bronze garanti au Titre - PARIS". On a metal plate, inscription "1er Prix de Rome", Paris circa 1900. H. 63 cm. Very fine condition. You'll get what you see in photos.
