Description

André Jannois, vue du château de Versailles depuis le bois de Satory, soit à l'emplacement de l'ancienne voie ferrée Paris - Chartres. Oil on canvas and original stretcher, signed and dated 1845. A typical Île de France landscape, with a woodcutter in the foreground, behind which the south wing and central part of the château stand out in the sunlight, along with the royal chapel, whose roof overhangs that of the palace. André Jannois was a 19th-century painter and landscape artist in Versailles. He exhibited at the Paris Salon from 1845 to 1849. Good condition.
