Description

Louis Philippe solid cherry wood low buffer. It opens with three drawers on the front, resting on a sober, elegant structure typical of provincial production in the XIXe century.It has a very beautiful, warm blond patina, highlighting the natural veining of the cherrywood.The drawers are assembled using traditional techniques and slide perfectly.Original locks with keys, all functional, a sought-after and increasingly rare item.Ensemble in very good condition, sound and ready to be installed.A few slight traces of time, normal for an antique piece of furniture, contribute to its authenticity.Delivery in Metropolitan France 150EUR.Contact us for more information.
