Description

This imposing and very beautiful solid wood sculpture carved in "oak" represents a Christian bishop of the 17th century. The work is presented with a beautiful expression. The sculpture is beautifully crafted with its mitre characteristic of bishops in the Christian tradition, the gesture of blessing with the right hand: typical of religious representations, liturgical vestments (long robe, ornaments): they correspond to ecclesiastical vestments. Care must be taken with the workmanship of the garment and its flag and the precision of the lace representation.
