Description

Pair of dishes dating from 1860-1880 decorated with green family enamels. Qing dynasty (Tsing) period. Made in China in Canton. These plates have an original marli and the central medallion scenes depict scenes of life with literati, courtesans playing music on a guqin and children enjoying themselves in a probably palace setting. Note some wear from use and a small fel on each plate but almost invisible, these plates sound very good. Delivery possible by chronopost for: France 30EUR Europe 50EUROther 80EUR
