Description

Important Renaissance-style carved wood chest, featuring a front richly decorated with high-relief decoration composed of foliage, plant motifs and female figures framing a central cartouche. The composition, highly balanced and dynamic, is fully in keeping with the decorative vocabulary inspired by the Italian Renaissance, with a particularly expressive and decorative sculptural quality. The facade offers deep, edgy work, highlighting volumes and creating a remarkable play of shadows. Beautiful, warm dark brown antique patina, testifying to the age of the piece and its authenticity. This handsome chest makes a characterful piece of furniture as well as a strong decorative element, ideal in a classic interior, an old home or as a contrast in a contemporary setting.
