Description

Elegant and rare three-top console table in thick glass resting on fluted uprights evoking neoclassical-inspired colonnettes.This model, with its airy yet architectural lines, is in keeping with the refined aesthetic of the 1970s, in a Hollywood Regency spirit blending modernity with classical references.The quality of the glass, which is particularly thick, gives the ensemble a remarkable presence while retaining great visual lightness.The beautifully transparent fluted colonnettes add an elegant decorative rhythm and set this console apart from more common models.With its generous proportions, it fits perfectly into an entrance hall, a living room or as a console behind a sofa.Thick glass in excellent condition, with no splinters or scratches.Perfectly stable structure.Dismantlable piece of furniture
