Description

Provençal glazed terracotta jug known as a "conscience" - 19th / early 20th century
A beautiful Provençal glazed terracotta jug with a rounded body, short neck, and two pairs of side loops still fitted with their original cord. A utilitarian piece from the South of France, typical of traditional productions intended for the transport and storage of oil. The brown-orange glaze has a beautiful patina from use.

Dimensions: Height: 20 cm Diameter: 18 cm
In very good overall condition, with consistent signs of use (wear and minor, insignificant chips in the glaze). An authentic, decorative piece full of character. For any questions:
