Description

Small wrought iron wall console - rose decoration - marble top French work, early XXe century, Art Nouveau / Art Deco spirit
Elegant small wrought-iron wall console, adorned with stylized plant decoration and topped with a veined gray marble top. The structure features remarkable ironwork: a slender central foot supports the top, decorated at its center with a wrought-iron rose surrounded by foliage, a sculptural element that forms the focal point of the composition. On either side, wide coiled scrolls support the tray, bringing balance and lightness to the whole. The overall décor harmoniously blends the plant curves of Art Nouveau with a sleeker structure already heralding the Art Deco aesthetic characteristic of certain ironwork productions of the early XXe century. The nuanced gray marble
