Description

This plate features a dense decoration of vegetal racemes, typical of the Castellana manufactures of Manises, and features Gothic-style lettering on the central pulpit. The ruby-colored metallic luster is brilliant and shows off its full beauty, as is the enamel on the plate, which is also very beautiful. The piece has been restored due to a small crack of about 5 cm on the lower edge, the crack extending to the central pulpit. The reverse is beautifully decorated with a spiral, typical of Valencian Renaissance ceramics.Diameter: 40.5 cm.References: Ceramica del Levante Español* by González Martí, volume Loza, pages 504 and 505.We include a certificate attesting to its age and authenticity with the sale.
