Description

Blackamoor seal pendant in 18 karat gold. The pendant-seal features a blackamoor head, finely carved from banded agate. The carving reveals several layers of color - white, black, and brown. The pendant ends with a gold seal finely chased with arabesques. Below, an intaglio is engraved on orange-colored agate. It depicts the profile of an old man, perhaps a philosopher, a god, or a hero from Greek mythology - Priam, Plato, Socrates, Jupiter, or Hercules. This seal pendant dates from the late 18th century, Italy or France. Height: 3 cm - Width: 1.5 cm Note: A certificate can be provided upon request from Mr. Antoine Tarantino, a renowned expert in classical archaeology, who has examined the intaglio.
