Description

Pastorale.martinus de la court
(1640-1710) Painter active in Delft and Leiden in the second half of the 17th century. Renowned for his rural landscapes, animated by animals, often painted on copper or his fine brushstrokes accompanied by the soft light characteristic of the Eyde school. Our painting is one of Martinus de la Court's favorite themes of a peasant woman and a shepherd tending his animals in a hilly landscape bathed in an idealized pastoral atmosphere. Rare painting by Martinus de la court signed on the trunk lower right. Flemish school, 17th century Oil on copper:
Dimensions: width 44.5cm, height 34.5cm
