

Lawyer's Diploma - 1756 Parchment - University Of Dijon - Charles François Bouzon (1734-1781)

75 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Parchment

Width : 34,2

Height : 23,5

Description

This text, printed on parchment (yellowed), and annotated, is a letter of conferral of a university degree (lawyer's diploma), written in Latin from the University of Dijon. The graduate is Désiré Charles François BOUZON ((1734-1781) born and active in Lons le Saulnier. Généanet provided us with his family tree, a copy of which we will give to the acquirer, as well as the full transcription of the diploma. extract: (...It is fitting for professors to cultivate justice and truth, and to devote themselves to them with the greatest care, so that, through the reward of virtue and erudition, they may render students of jurisprudence fit and capable of fulfilling the functions of the Church and the Republic(....) we have wished to bear him witness to the truth, and to make it publicly known that, after a diligent

Dealer

Cabinet des curieux

Cabinet of Curiosities

Tel : 0144830957

Mobile : 0613747892

12 Passage Verdeau

Paris 75009

examination, and after having publicly defended the theses of both rights,(...) he has been judged worthy(...) and after having taken the oath required according to the custom of our Academy, we have conferred upon him the degree of bachelor in both rights (...).