Description

Description: Original, highly decorative German cigar cutter from the 1930s, cleverly designed in the shape of a telegraph. Cast in bronze, this whimsical yet functional object combines the charm of early industrial design with the elegance of a smoker's accessory. Its sculptural form and inventive design make it not only a practical desk object, but also a conversation piece, ideal for collectors of tobacco-related objects, mechanical curiosities or Art Deco desk accessories. Compact yet visually striking, it will fit perfectly into a desk, study or display case. Dimensions: Height: 15 cm Width: 6 cm Depth: 7 cm Condition: Very good vintage condition. Slight traces of wear due to age. Well preserved.
