Description

Superb set of six cut crystal wine glasses, Tommy model, from the first period, emblematic work of the house Saint-Louis, the absolute benchmark for French artisanal crystals since the XVIII^e century. Created in 1928, the model Tommy was imagined for the Versailles banquet celebrating the tenth anniversary of the Armistice. Since then, it has remained one of the most prestigious and recognizable models from the Saint-Louis, symbol of elegance, balance and timeless refinement. These glasses are distinguished by a cut chalice with flat ribs, pearls and diamonds, faceted leg and star-shaped foot, typical of Saint-Louis' exceptional craftsmanship. Each glass is made from lined (or overlay) crystal, where a thin layer of colored
