Description

Art Deco-style showcase in solid wood and lacquered by Thanh Ley. Very fine piece of furniture made by this famous artist who notably created magnificent lacquers. Here two very beautiful doors animated with aquarium scenes with fish of plenty typical of this artist's creations. Note the original plaque with signature inside one of the doors. Excellent condition of the whole and of the lacquers completely covering the piece of furniture. Very chic and high quality showcase with great stability due to the solid wood construction of the frame. Two original glass shelves are present in the upper part. In summary, a beautiful piece of furniture with great presence that can also be used to display a fine collection. Possibility of delivery in France by professional and specialized carrier.
