

A 19th-century Silver Medicine Spoon France

145 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Sterling silver

Length : 17 cm

Description

A 19th-century silver medicine spoon with a twisted stem adorned with foliate scrolls and terminating in a baluster-shaped bolster with four sections, each with six chased ribs. The oval bowl has a pointed end. Formerly gilded. Hallmarked with the French Minerva 800/1000 standard; maker's mark present but incomplete. Length 17 cm. Weight 22 grams. Excellent condition.

Dealer

Lucas L&E

Argenterie ancienne, Arts liturgiques, Arts Russes, Arts de la tables

Mobile : 0615687757

Maisons-Laffitte 78600