Description

Oil on panel. Venetian school, mid-16th century. The crucified Christ at the center of the scene is surrounded by four saints identified by their iconographic symbols: on the left, Saint Francis and Saint Jerome; on the right, Saint Sebastian and Saint Roch. In the background is a view of a city, likely Rome, indicating the connection with the Church as an institution. A paper label with a number is on the back (from a 19th-century private collection). The painting is presented in a frame.The item is in good condition, with minor signs of wear. We try to present the item's actual condition as accurately as possible with the photos. If any details are unclear from the photos, the description will apply.
