Description

This is a photo on albumen paper. (Albumen papers are made in the following way: a sheet of fine paper of good quality is floated onto a bath composed of a mixture of sodium or ammonium chloride and albumen (beaten and decanted egg whites). This is a shot with a bearded man smoking a pipe. Noted on the bottom of the photo: to be deciphered. It is laminated on cardboard, note discoloration and the presence of damp stains. The bottom left-hand corner of the photo has been reglued. The cardboard is warped. We guarantee that this is a late 19th-century print. For condition, please detail the photos. We have other photos of the same provenance on our store. The photos are an integral part of the description. Dimensions: Bracket Width: 13 cm Height: 18 cm Photo Width: 10.5 cm Height:
