Description

Sieneese double iron bed, late 18th - early 19th century, with original decorations.

A magnificent example of period Tuscan craftsmanship, this wrought-iron double bed combines elegance and refinement. The structure features original hand-painted decorations with gilded motifs and charming figurative scenes. The headboards display the graceful curves and scrolls typical of the late 18th-century style, while the painted panels add a unique and sophisticated character. A rare piece, perfect for collectors, historical interiors, or design projects requiring authentic period charm.
