Description

Italian bed from the late 18th century, crafted in finely lacquered wood and enriched with delicate gilded decoration in gold leaf. The piece retains its original frame, featuring sculpted and gracefully shaped legs, characteristic of the late 18th-century style. The upholstered and fabric-covered headboard adds both elegance and comfort, enhancing the harmonious lines and refined craftsmanship of the whole. A highly prestigious piece, ideal for classic interiors, distinguished antique collections, or historic residences.
