Description

An elegant Murano glass table lamp, dating from the 1940s-1950s. It features a single-stemmed central body with vertical ribbing; the circular base is finely finished with a 'lace-like' petal motif, whilst the clear glass is embellished on the inside with a gold dust application. Similar 'ribbed' designs appear regularly in Barovier and Seguso productions. No marks or signatures. Height 65 cm including the shade.
