Description

Travertine coffee table - 1970s work
Elegant coffee table made entirely of travertine, characteristic of 1970s design, combining sobriety of line and nobility of material. The rectangular top, with canted corners, is beautifully thick and rests on an architectural central base composed of four vertical supports, forming a balanced, graphic structure. The whole rests on a base also in travertine, ensuring stability and visual harmony. The stone, in nuanced light beige tones, offers a natural veining and texture typical of travertine, bringing warmth and authenticity to the whole. This model evokes the work of Italian designers in the second half of the 20th century, in the spirit of modernist and minimalist production. Era: 1970s Material: Travertine Style: Design /
