Description

BALITRAN (Jean-Jacques) painterborn in Agen in 1930 and died in 2024 in the Pyrénées Orientales. He studied at the Ecole des Beaux-Arts in Bordeaux, Tours and Orléans. A lover of the Loire, he lived for several years on its banks in Touraine. He captured its beauty and distinctive light. Always of the abstract, the viewer nonetheless finds himself immersed in a landscape or composition that becomes increasingly perceptible and magical. This superb work, an oil on canvas dating from the 1980s, depicts a Loire landscape in tones typical of this fine artist's palette. This canvas is entitled "Gris d'orage sur la Loire" Loire de Noël. Signature of the artist on the right at the bottom of the canvas and on the back of the work. Dimensions: Height 102 x Width 102 (cm)
