Description

Hand-painted, enameled porcelain vase. It depicts a group of court ladies in a garden. The figures are dressed in traditional multicolored dresses. The background is made up of landscape elements: fanciful garden rocks (taihu), flowering trees (probably plum or cherry), architectural elements (fence, pavilion) and details such as butterflies and pomegranate fruit (symbolizing fertility and numerous offspring). On the reverse is a long inscription in cursive black ink. China, Qing dynasty, late 19th / early 20th century. Height 43 cm, diameter 19 cm. Very good condition. The main part of the inscription is a poem describing the beauty of the garden and nature. It reads in substance: "???????, ??????" (Man yuán chunsè nóng rú jīn, yáoyè hóng méi yìng yù rén) Translation: "Spring colors
