Description

Ceramic vase by Robert Picault - Vallauris - 30 cm
Elegant ceramic vase made by French ceramist Robert Picault, an important figure in Vallauris artistic ceramics in the second half of the XXe century. This vase features an elegant, slender baluster silhouette, adorned with the artist's characteristic geometric decoration. The piece is decorated with friezes of white spirals on a deep blue background, alternating with turquoise-green triangular motifs, creating a graphic rhythm typical of Vallauris's production. The ensemble is enhanced by a glossy enamel finish that underlines the finesse of the decoration and the craftsmanship of the workshop. A decorative piece highly representative of the modernist style developed in Vallauris in the 1950s-1960s. Signature: monogram RP under the
