Description

Lovely Renaissance - Louis XIII style solid walnut armchair with leather-covered back and seat. Also known as a "chaise à bras", our chair rests on two rectangular-section rear legs and two baluster-turned front legs. The four legs are connected by an H-shaped brace. The straight armrests are embellished with leather-covered sleeves, and the end of each armrest is terminated by a spherical ball that also joins the armrest supports. The seat of our chair is very comfortable, and both the backrest and the seat are covered in attractive tan-colored leather that has acquired a beautiful patina over time. Some stains and marks of use are due to the age and use of this seat. The whole is embellished with a beautiful finish made with golden and pyramidal nails. Dimensions: back height 97 cm seat height
