

Emile Gallé - Vase With Handles, Japanese

1 400 EUR

Signature : Emile Gallé

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Glass

Diameter : 8 cm

Height : 11 cm

Description

rare and elegant two-handled vase in multi-layered glass, featuring a globular body, an elongated, flared corolla-shaped neck and two side handles in applied glass with a slightly grained texture. decor blown in relief, taken up by acid etching and wheel engraving, giving the decoration a particularly senseible depth and modelling. the motif depicts Japanese "kikou" chrysanthemums, a dense floral heart in rosette form, long petals, a supple, swirling movement, an emblematic motif of Japonism. the motif depicts Japanese "kikou" chrysanthemums , a dense rosette-shaped floral heart , long petals , supple and swirling movement , an emblematic motif of Japonism . the "kikou" chrysanthemum , imperial flower of Japan , evokes longevity , nobility and natural harmony . bright

Dealer

Galerie Art 31

General antiquarian, paintings, furniture and curiosities.

Mobile : 06.79.66.79.71 / 06.43.20.76.95

Launaguet 31140

amber-yellow ground , brown-red upper layers , beautiful mastery of multi-layered glass .Gallé signature in the decoration good condition overall