Description

Elegant, authentic monastery table in solid oak, in the spirit of the Louis XIII style, from the 20th century. This table is characterized by its base with powerful brackets joined by a cross brace, a guarantee of stability and sturdiness. The top, of good thickness, has a superb warm patina, highlighting the grain of the oak. This table offers great modularity thanks to its two extensions, making it easy to go from a family table (180cm) to a large reception table (270cm with its two extensions). XXe century craftsmanship of fine quality, combining aesthetics and functionality. Very good overall condition. Delivery in Metropolitan France 180EUR. Contact us for more information.
