650 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

Console from the XIXe century in solid wood, Empire style
Console from the XIXe century in solid wood, late Empire or Restoration style, showing neoclassical influence. Rectangular in shape, it features a drawer in the waistband fitted with two angular metal handles and a central lock entrance in working condition. The symmetrical, architectural structure rests at the front on two feet sculpted in relief: the upper part adorned with a stylized figurative motif, shafts decorated with wooden branches and claw-foot ends. The rear uprights are fluted, evoking antique/empire-inspired columns. A solid lower shelf connects the ensemble and rests on rectangular runners. 57.5 x 32 x 75 cm
