Description

Beautiful silk leaf fan embroidered with gold and colored sequins and colored sequins. A central cartel is painted with a gallant couple, surrounded by two cartels painted with charming putti and garlands of flowers and foliage. The mount is engraved, pierced and gilded ivory (CITES certificate). The rim is made of Rhine stone. It measures 9,84 inches closed. A fine example of a "pastiche" fan. Eighteenth-century-style fans were fashionable at the very end of the very end of the 19th century and around 1900. The leaf of this of very high quality is very close to the creations of the 18th century. France, late 19thC / 1900.
