Description

Elegant pair of painted wood sheaths with imitation marble decor, dating from the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Each sheath features a particularly meticulous decoration simulating different polychrome marbles in red, green and yellow tones, offering a highly decorative and refined rendering. The top trays are also treated in imitation marble, reinforcing the overall effect. Their sober, architectural form is enhanced by molded frames and contrasting plinths, allowing sculptures, vases or objets d'art to stand out. These sheaths will find their perfect place in a classic or contemporary interior, adding a touch of elegance and character. Dimensions: Height: 90 cm Section: 35 x 35 cm Delivery: Delivery in France: from 40 to 60 euros.
