

Wr S & Co, Japanese Style Table Service, England, Circa 1840

2 400 EUR

Signature : WR S & CO

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Description

Model n°2618 Charming earthenware part table service composed of 10 small plates, 2 square dishes, 3 round dishes, 2 rectangular dishes, with polychrome decoration enhanced with gold representing on the basin a bouquet of flowers in a vase and an incense box. Flowers and ribbons bloom on the wing. Commentary : William Ridgway Son & Co was an earthenware manufacturer located in Stoke-upon-Trent, England. Working first with his father and brother, William Ridgway later partnered with his son Edward John Ridgway. Leonard Abington joined the firm which became William Ridgway Son & Co. In April 1847, William Ridgway withdrew from the business, Edward John Ridgway and Leonard J Abington continuing as Ridgway & Abington.

<https://www.proantic.com/en/1734935-wr-s-amp-co-japanese-style-table-service-england-circa-1840.html>

Dealer

Tobogan Antiques

Furniture and Art objects from the 19th Century

Tel : 0142868999

Mobile : 0609471374

14 avenue Matignon

Paris 75008