Description

A fascinating bronze bust depicting a Gypsy's Head, by Italian sculptor Oronzo Gargiulo (1869-1917), an artist known for his ability to combine realism and formal elegance. The sculpture features a female face with harmonious and intensely expressive features, characterized by a proud and slightly absorbed gaze. The head is wrapped in a soft drape that falls naturally, framing the face and creating refined chiaroscuro effects on the bronze surface. The careful and sensitive modeling creates a remarkable sculptural effect, enhanced by a warm and luminous patina. The bust is mounted on a solid base of dark, veined marble, which provides stability and further enhances the overall effect with an elegant textural contrast. A work of great charm and quality, this sculpture represents a
