

South Sea Pearls And Sapphires Necklace, 1.90 Carats. White Gold Clasp

4 900 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Pearl

Description

A sumptuous necklace featuring South Sea pearls, renowned for their satin sheen and subtle reflections, in delicately golden or silvery shades. Their generous presence lends the ensemble a noble, timeless allure. The necklace is embellished with sapphires totaling approximately 1.90 carats, bringing a touch of deep, precious color, in harmonious contrast with the softness of the pearls. The white gold clasp, both discreet and secure, completes this jewel with elegance and modernity. A refined, luminous piece, combining sophistication, balanced materials and jewelry excellence.

Dealer

Dael et Grau

Bijoux anciens

Tel : 03 20 39 27 91

3-5 rue Lepelletier

Lille 59800