Description

Exceptional Pietà on slate, Genoese School, 17th century
This piece illustrates the virtuosity of the masters of the Genoese school of the Seicento through a representation of the Pietà of rare dramatic intensity. The scene depicts the Virgin Mary supporting the body of Christ in a classic Italian Baroque pyramidal composition. The iconography is enriched by the presence of angels collecting the Precious Blood in gilded chalices, a powerful Eucharistic motif typical of the religious fervor of the Counter-Reformation. An exceptional technique Lavagna slate
The use of slate as a pictorial support is a prestigious technical signature of the Ligurian region. Genoese School, 17th century
Dimensions: 130 cm. x 115 cm, approximately 100 kg
