Description

Richly carved two-body buffet - Henri II style in walnut. Important two-body buffet in solid wood, in the Henri II style, featuring rich carved ornamentation. The upper part opens with three leaves, including a central glazed door with small panes, framed by turned colonnettes. The side doors are adorned with finely carved panels of plant motifs in relief. The ensemble is topped by a molded cornice embellished with carved motifs and two small fire pots. The middle section forms a credenza with openwork gallery and serving tray, resting on elegantly turned colonnettes. The lower section consists of two waisted drawers with bronze handles, surmounting two doors with richly molded and carved panels decorated with cartouches and Renaissance motifs. Very fine craftsmanship, with structured, balanced
