

Chromcraft Dining Table, Smoked Glass, Space Age Design, 1970s

680 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Glass

Length : 153

Width : 118

Height : 74

Description

Large dining table produced by the American manufacturer Chromcraft in the 1970s, reflecting the design language of iconic models such as the Tulip table by Eero Saarinen. It features a generous oval top in thick smoked glass, resting on a felt layer, beneath which sits a central steel pedestal ending in a black circular base. The overall silhouette is both balanced and refined, combining visual lightness with structural presence. Dimensions: Length: 153 cm Width: 118 cm Height: 74 cm Condition: Good overall condition. Minor surface scratches to the glass, consistent with age and use. Gallery view This table belongs to a category of designs that transcend strict stylistic labels. While it naturally evokes the Space Age aesthetic, it also resonates with the clarity and restraint of Scandinavian

Dealer

Galerie dMdB

Carefully selected art of quality and originality

Mobile : +32476882717

De Merodelei 275

Turnhout 2300

design, resulting in a timeless presence. The central pedestal enhances both comfort and conviviality, while the smoked glass introduces a subtle, elegant depth. A piece that integrates effortlessly into both contemporary and eclectic interiors, retaining its modern appeal more than fifty years after its creation.