Description

Refined pastel portrait on paper, framed in carved and gilded wood. The painting is a copy of the famous portrait of Madame Molé-Reymond, an actress of the Comédie-Italienne, created by the renowned French portraitist Élisabeth Louise Vigée Le Brun in 1786. The young woman's face is turned toward the viewer, with a joyful expression. She wears typical period clothing, with a large hat with a feather and a fur mitten in her hands. This is a painting of great taste and refinement, capable of adding a touch of class and antiquity to any interior. There are minor defects on the frame; the painting is covered with protective glass. French manufacture, early 19th century. Dimensions: H x W x D overall 80 x 64 x 5cm; H x W work only 66 x 49cm
