Description

A platinum ring (dog's head hallmark) set with old-cut diamonds, including four larger ones set in the center. These are claw-set on chatons, which give the center of the ring an openwork rendering that lends it depth and relief. On either side of the shoulder, delicately cut palmettes arranged in arches, also set with diamonds, frame these diamonds and form the beautiful oval of the ring. These palmettes are topped by ribbons running along the ring's profile, also set with diamonds, lending relief and movement to the whole. A very feminine ring richly adorned. The old-cut diamonds are all unique, and not calibrated as the diamond will later become. Each one brings its own particular shape and color, which enhances each other. The overall color rendering of the stones is white. This ring,
