

Plaster Bust Of Hermes

1 150 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Plaster

Length : 52

Height : 72

Depth : 33

Description

Bust / garden statue representing the Greek god Hermes. Hermes was the god of travel and roads. He protected travelers, roads and merchants. This is why, in ancient times, statues of Hermes were found along the roads. 2. Trade and wealth. Hermes was considered the god of commerce, markets and profit. Made in a kind of hard plaster. Nice patina and traces of exposure on the outside. Late 20th century, from Belgium. Dimensions: 72H x 52W x 33D

Dealer

Rietveld Antiques

19th and 20th century antiques and decorative pieces

Mobile : +31624758505

Domeinenstraat 20

Mill 5451