Description

Important and refined oval polychrome stucco depicting the Madonna and Child. The mother and child are held in a tender embrace, and in addition to the Madonna's typical robes, two halos can be seen. This stucco dates to the late 16th century and is attributed to Tuscan craftsmanship. The work was subsequently inserted into an elegant oval frame of carved wood gilded with pure gold leaf, to which three polychrome terracotta angels, dating to the late 18th century, are attached. This is a work of great quality and refinement, capable of lending a touch of class and antiquity to any interior.
