Description

Immense early oil on canvas depicting a lively country landscape with river, trees and character/animal in the distance, in the taste of the 19th-century French school (Barbizon/naturalist style). Very nice large decorative format, with antique molded and gilded wood frame. Painting executed in oil on canvas, showing beautiful material and old patina. Visible unsigned work, typical of 19th-century French studio or school productions. Ideal for classical decoration, character house, château, hotel or collection. ????
