Description

Rometti Umbertide Tea Set - 1940s Italian Artistic Ceramics. Artistic ceramic tea set made by the renowned Ceramiche Rometti, a leading exponent of 20th-century Italian ceramics. The set perfectly embodies the modern elegance of the 1940s: pure forms, volumetric balance, and a refined color combination of ivory on the outside and bright orange on the inside, capable of conferring great scenic presence even on display. Rometti's production from this period testifies to the transition from the Italian decorative tradition to the language of modern European design, where functionality and aesthetic research coexist harmoniously. The set includes: teapot with lid, sugar bowl with lid, and 6 cups with saucers. Overall condition is excellent, commensurate with its age. Dimensions: Teapot: height 12 cm,
