

Wurkum Dance Crest

350 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Diameter : 32 cm

Description

A dance crest from the Wurkum people in Nigeria, representing a kind of figurative mask with eyes and mouth figured by the inclusion of cowries (shells symbolizing wealth). There are also two small circular mirrors around the nose, as well as animal horns and a charge of seeds on the "skull" of the face. This is a fetish dance crest. The object has a slightly crusty suage patina and a good age. It is authentic and has not been restored.
