Description

Oil on canvas signed by Sokolov Vladimir Aleksandrovich, depicting Lenin in the company of several children within a woodland setting. The scene, set in an evocative autumn landscape, presents a balanced and narrative composition: Lenin is portrayed in a calm and composed manner, surrounded by young figures. The painting is distinguished by soft, textured brushwork and a warm color palette dominated by earthy, ochre, and reddish tones, evoking the seasonal atmosphere of the forest. The figures are rendered with expressive harmony, with particular attention to clothing details and posture, suggesting a moment of everyday interaction and closeness. A work of notable historical and iconographic interest, rooted in the Soviet artistic tradition of the 20th century, ideal
