Description

Magnificent 18th-century solid mahogany two-body sideboard, typical of the quality of port furniture. In very good condition, with a beautiful patina, this quality piece of furniture features a curved architecture with a moving cornice framed by rounded uprights. The upper part features numerous shelves for displaying books, fine crockery and collectables in the spirit of a curiosity cabinet. The lower part offers a closed storage area, with a shelf featuring two drawers. The unit rests on turned legs (they were redone a long time ago, as were the bottom of the unit and the shelves). The dimensions in cm are 1621 x 64. total height 261 (bottom 97) This item is also visible in my store , in Morbihan in South Brittany where you can if you wish , collect it .For the price of a delivery , other
