

Pair Of Liberty Style Leaded Stained Glass Windows, Late 19th - Early 20th Century

1 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Glass

Width : 95

Height : 200

Description

Pair of Liberty style leaded stained glass windows, late 19th - early 20th century. Beautiful pair of Art Nouveau (Liberty) stained glass panels, crafted in colored leaded glass between the late 19th and early 20th century. Each panel is adorned with elegant floral motifs featuring stylized flowers in shades of burgundy, purple and deep green, standing out against yellow and ivory backgrounds. The central section displays a refined geometric diamond and rectangular pattern in warm tones of amber, ochre yellow and milky white, characteristic of the Art Nouveau aesthetic. The windows are completed by graceful arched tops and bottoms with symmetrical floral decorations, creating a harmonious and highly refined effect. Dimensions: Total height: 200 cm Width: 95 cm Perfect as a prestigious decorative

Dealer

Il Rigattiere di Martini
Antiques

Mobile : +393392392619

Via Aurelia nord 92

Grosseto 58100

element for elegant interiors, doors, windows or as room dividers. A genuine piece of Italian and European design history.